Part-Time Acupuncturist Wanted — Join New Lynn Acupuncture

New Lynn Acupuncture is growing, and we're looking for a passionate and reliable Part-Time Acupuncturist to join our patient-focused clinic. Located in the heart of New Lynn, our prime location and strong community & online presence make this an excellent opportunity for a practitioner who advocates for natural healthcare and long-term wellness.

Who Is Our Ideal Candidate?

You are someone who:

- Has solid clinical experience in acupuncture and cupping therapy.
- Is reliable, professional, and consistent in both patient care and communication.
- Has a genuine passion for helping people heal, improve function, and maintain long term wellness.
- Believes in holistic, preventive healthcare, not just symptom-based treatment.
- Enjoys working in a supportive, collaborative environment with other healthcare professionals.
- Takes pride in building strong patient relationships and contributing to a positive clinic culture.
- Is able to commit to three days a week at our clinic.
- Is motivated, ethical, and committed to ongoing learning and growth.

If you're passionate about making a meaningful impact and want to grow with a clinic that values excellence and care, we'd love to hear from you.
